

European Association for Quality Assurance in Higher Education ENQA

Promoting European Cooperation

ENQA has been established to promote European co-operation in the field of quality assurance in higher education.

The objectives of ENQA are:

- to encourage and develop the exchange of information and experience relating to the quality assurance of higher education, in particular on methodological developments and examples of good practice;
- to function as a policy forum, developing and proposing standards, procedures and guidelines for quality assurance;
- to fulfill requests for expertise and advice from European Ministers of Education, national and regional public authorities and other bodies associated with the European Higher Education Area (EHEA);

The objectives of ENQA are:

- to facilitate quality assurance activities in the area of transnational higher education;
- to promote the development and implementation of effective systems for quality assurance and accreditation agencies;
- to co-ordinate the management of reviews of quality assurance and accreditation agencies;
- to maintain and develop co-operation with other appropriate European stakeholder organisations;
- to contribute to the establishment of the EHEA;
- to conduct dialogues with other networks and regions.
